

applied and theoretical economics

Venue:

Sir Neil Waters Lecture Theatre Building,
Massey University, Albany Campus

Important Dates:

1st ATE Symposium: 12-13 Dec 2013
[full program to follow]

ATE Symposium Dinner: 13 Dec 2013
[details to follow]

Deadline for paper submissions: 15 Sept 2013

Notifications of paper acceptance: 30 Sept 2013

Deadline for Online Registration: 15 Nov 2013
[Instructions for online registration and payment of fees for non-speakers and accompanying persons – speakers are waived registrations fees – will be available in due course on the ATE website at <http://ate.massey.ac.nz/>]

Two special topic sessions and one Public Lecture will be held during the Symposium.

One of the special sessions will be on 'Intellectual Property Rights & Litigation' with Jay Pil Choi contributing to it; and the other on 'Electricity Markets' with Frank Wolak, Lew Evans and Carl Hansen contributing to it.

The 1st ATE Public Lecture focusing on electricity market design and titled "Regulating Monopolies in a Small Economy" will be held toward the end of the first day of the Symposium and will feature Frank Wolak as a guest speaker.

To submit a paper for consideration, please send a copy of it by email to ate@massey.ac.nz.

Up to two ATE PhD Student Travel Scholarships of NZ$500.00 each will be awarded at the call for participation

1st ATE Symposium on Competition Policy Issues: Theory Meets Practice

Massey University, Albany Campus, 12-13 December 2013

Submissions to the Symposium are now open!
The event provides a forum for discussion of recent advances and trends in the theory and practice of competition policy and regulation.

Confirmed guest speakers:

Frank Wolak (Stanford University), Jay Pil Choi (Michigan State and New South Wales Universities), Lilla Csorgo (Chief Economist, Competition Branch, New Zealand Commerce Commission), Carl Hansen (Chief Executive, New Zealand Electricity Authority), Koki Arai (Senior Researcher for Economic Analysis Japan Fair Trade Commission and Competition Policy Research Centre), Lew Evans (Victoria University of Wellington), Toby Daghish (ISCR Research Director), Hodaka Morita and Arghya Ghosh (both USNW).

ATE Symposium Dinner. PhD students who would like to be considered for the award need to add a CV to their submission and arrange for a support letter from their PhD Supervisors to be sent separately by email.

Looking forward to welcoming you at the 1st ATE Symposium!
The Program Committee,
Simona Fabrizi (Massey), Steffen Lippert (Otago) and Hodaka Morita (UNSW)

For further details refer to <http://ate.massey.ac.nz>

UNIVERSITY OF NEW ZEALAND

THE ENGINE OF THE NEW
NEW ZEALAND

